

THUNDERCON 2018

CELEBRITY GUESTS

Jim Starlin is ThunderCon's first comic industry celebrity guest and what a great one. This legendary artist is known for the creation art for Marvel's Thanos, and worked on DC's Darkseid, Epic's Dreadstar and more! With the massive popularity of Guardians of the Galaxy and the Upcoming Infinity War movie series this is perfect timing for max value from this fantastic celebrity guest!

Wow! The man responsible for Darth Vader's iconic helmet, Brian Muir, is coming to share his experiences, knowledge, and creations. The powerhouse list of brands he has worked on includes Star Wars, Harry Potter, Guardians of the Galaxy, Tomb Raider, Planet of the Apes, Lost in Space, James Bond, Princess Bride, and more.

There will be lots of eyes and attention on this celebrity guest!

Dark Horse Comic artist and co-founder of the art house With Pen & Brush Studios, Rob Thibodeau, is an amazing artist, occasional actor, and this year's program cover illustrator! He is a great attraction and have lots of attention as ppl will want to get their programs signed. This sponsorship is a great value!

Celebrity guests are well advertised and covered by the media. They are top tier attractions at ThunderCon. These sponsorships offer good exposure and strong market connection.
